EVERYONE'S GOOD TODAY

2017-2018 is the most diverse year!

Thank you so much for buying this book!

This time (for the 2008 Summer Comiket), my schedule was really busy, so I was thinking about not doing a new book. But, at the last minute I decided I just couldn't give up, so I hurried to get something out in time... It's more like a mini collection of old stories, though. There are shorts from the booklets given out at signings for "Saa, Kai ni Oshitamaru" in 2006 and "Mr. Convenience" in 2008 (sorry for the pencil sketches...), some one page shorts from newsletters, and a few pages of new material, so it's a book full of all sorts of different characters.

...It's almost like I get more into drawing these short, silly comics than I do the normal ones. But anyway, I really enjoyed drawing this. So please, enjoy!!

And I think that's about it. I hope to see you again.

Thank you very much!
